

The Wanamaker Store.

Handkerchiefs at the Top Today

YOU may count the day lost that fails to show some new merchandise interest to public attention at this store. Handkerchiefs lead today. Some advertisers might want to inform you as to the uses and purposes of handkerchiefs—but then many advertisements are stupid. Our aim is to tell you something of the value, qualities and prices of the Handkerchiefs offered today.

37,764 Handkerchiefs

Seconds in Belfast—first in New York. Once a year Belfast collects all handkerchiefs that have a single heavy thread, a dropped stitch in the hem or anything else that a hypocritical heresy hunter could find to condemn. Pure linen and perfect weaving—nothing short of this permitted. It's the smart merchant that can catch the seconds in Handkerchiefs at the beginning of each year. They are only technically seconds, and you wouldn't know anything of it were you not told. But the price! There's the plum.

The offering today has values from 25c to $1. But they all go into one round lot at 12 1/2c each. With so many big round envious bargain eyes all about looking for the one great chance of the year, you are to be congratulated at our success in securing for you the golden chance for bargain making in handkerchiefs.

Spring Dresses

The attempt to describe Dresses and Costumes has been despair and lunacy to many an advertiser. If the spring dresses continue to come with unabated beauty our advertising office will soon be an asylum with padded cells.

Caught on the wing: An entirely new design in a costume of black Chantilly lace over white silk, with a Marie Antoinette effect of yellow velvet on the waist. Spanish colors and fabrics that are Spanish favorites. Suited for winter or summer, for dinner, for reception, or for out doors on a warm evening. $145.

Black satin ribbon and black Chantilly lace in alternate run-around stripes make a costume that is novel, elegant, simple, rich and not costly. $60.

Costumes from the dressmaker, suits from the tailor. Here are some words about three of the latter that have just dawned upon a waiting world of fashion.

Pearl cloth, just right for a bride's traveling dress—perhaps a trifle too delicate. The modified Eton jacket of this suit is original to an extreme—can be worn snugly closed, or open with decorated revers. $67.50.

Tan Cloth Suits or Tan Convert Cloth Suits. Either $50. But, what's the use? Description doesn't describe. The suits are triumphs.

It isn't Khaki at all. Only fine light blue denim and white bleached drill. But they make nice, neat, stylish suits, and give linen embroidery and khaki braid a good chance to decorate. Prices $21 and $22.50.

Our purpose is merely to awaken curiosity concerning our Dress and Cloak Store. That done, the visit follows and then the buying.

Men's Made-to-Measure Clothing—Short shirt to these largards—though they're as fine in quality and as desirable in pattern as any we had this winter. But the spring styles will soon be crowding in—and these few pieces must be here when the lighter fabrics come, $20 for a single-breasted sack suit to order, from stuffs for which we charged up to $40—for which many another custom tailor is asking considerably more. Choose from about 100 patterns of worsted trousers at $6.50. Values up to $11.

The Sale of Muslin Underwear—Still the little prices—though materials cost more and more. Not cheap labor, either—one look at the garments makes that plain. Sensible, good workmanship that looks pretty and holds together. First-rate stuffs and delicate trimmings.

8c—Corset covers of cambric, trimmed with lace; only 3 to a buyer. 10c and 15c—Drawers of muslin; hem and flaps; only 3 to a buyer. 38c—Night gowns of muslin, trimmed with lace and embroidery. Second floor, Fourth Avenue.

White Enameled Furniture—Novelties—Tables, desks, cabinets, glove cases, and so on. All attractively decorated—hand-painted. Prices were $3.50 to $80. Choose among them now at $5 to $55.

Rare Old Prints—In our picture store some engravings that were published a century and more ago are now shown. The subjects are various—many from the old Dutch and Flemish masters. Also a number of old English sporting prints. Prices range from $1.50 to $9—frames extra.

Trade Sale of Shoes

On Saturday the sale opened with 108,000 pairs. Sales began briskly and with them the opening of more cases of shoes. Despite great selling a stock census would show more shoes present today than on Saturday.

We put emphasis on this point. It is important, for it shows that we have too much respect for the Public to announce special offerings of small fragments and unimportant quantities. Our methods of selling are based upon great buying.

The general statement about our Special Shoe Prices is that they are one-third and one-half below current prices in New York today.

Women's Shoes—$1.15—Laced. Kid and calf. Values $2 at wholesale. $1.35—Button and laced; welled soles; modern lasts. Values to $2.50. $1.70—Button and laced; many brand-new lasts; tips of kid or patent leather. Some turned soles. Mostly $2.50 values. $2.25—Fine leathers; best styles. Value $3. $2.35—Many from a standard maker of $3.50 shoes. A leading offering. $2.65—Mannish lasts; full toes. Value $4.

Women's Oxfords—$1.10 to $1.50—Black or tan; new shapes. Values half to two-thirds more. $1.50—Laced. Kid and calf. Values $2 at wholesale. $1.75—Calf and grain leather; tan and brown. Spring weight or leather lined. Values $3 and $3.50. $1.90—Laced; black kid and calfskin. $2.30—Button shoes in calfskin. Lace shoes in calfskin, enamel and patent leather, kidskin and box calf. Welled soles. Value $3.50. $2.65—First-class shoes, laced and buttoned. The latest styles. Some Oxfords.

Men's Slippers—70c—House shoes; flexible soles; opera cut; tan and black. $1.00—Kid; patent leather tips; spring heels. Value $1.25.

Boys' Shoes—$1—Box calf and kidskin; sizes 8 to 13 1/2; spring heels. $1.25—Sizes 8 to 13 1/2; spring heels; 12 to 2, with heels. Box calf and kidskin. What About St. Valentine?

Pretty missives in thousands of forms, conveying tender sentiments in thousands of happy expressions. The collection is complete, tasteful throughout, and prices range generally lower than you'd rightfully expect:

Lace Valentines, 2c to 35c. Flat Cards, 2c to 10c. Folding Cards, 3c to 12c. Drop Cards, 15c to 22c. Booklets, 5c to 18c. Heart Shape Cards, 2c to 8c. Novelties, 8c to $1.60. Hand Painted Sashes, $1 to $3.75. Book Store, Ninth Street.

This Sale of Splendid Silks—The selling has gone on steadily, satisfactorily for several days. The sales run up into the thousands of yards. But the offerings are as attractive today as ever—as regards both their elegance and their cheapness. The quantities were vast, the assortment complete. Look today for these 27-in. kinds—27-in. instead of the usual 20 and 21-in. width—and at 95c, $1.15, $1.25 and $1.40, instead of the regular values which are a third to a half more.

95c—Taffetas of excellent quality; some with light bare spots on medium toned grounds; some with beautiful wave effects in desirable colorings; and many attractive patterns in stripes and checks. $1.15—Taffetas in deep rich blacks and in attractive colorings; one elegant effect is shown in a taffeta with ombre stripes in various colorings on ground of white; another has hair-lines of black and white alternating with broad stripes of satin in color. $1.25—These consist mainly of rich plaid taffetas—plaids into which enter pretty colored ribbon stripes of satin; some excellent wave effects, best of the kind. $1.40—Blacks and colors. Attractive designs in stripes and checks and figures; some with stripes and rows of polka dots alternating. Some rich black taffetas with wide grain and satin stripes alternating. In the hundreds.

A Sale of Screens—The offering includes a rare collection of exquisite French screens. Not old, nor shop-worn, nor imperfect in any detail. But undesirable here at this time. Welcome awaits them elsewhere. The new prices assure that. $22 to $100—though $30 to $145 were very moderate.

Another lot—various beautiful coverings of embroidered denim, silk velvet, novelty cretonne and tapestry, are likewise reduced—$5.25 to $14.75 instead of $7.75 to $22.50. Third floor.

Several Styles of Sash Curtains—Ordered out! For what reason? None other than that newer goods are coming in, and demand the space. Same qualities, same patterns, same sizes—same in everything excepting prices. These, some of which have been here but a few months, have been newly priced. Reductions are about a third.

Tamboured Muslin Sash Curtains—a dozen qualities and a score of pretty patterns at 85c to $3.75 a pair. Were $1.25 to $5.25. Brussels Sash Curtains—9 grades, 15 patterns in all, at $3.25 to $13.50; were $4.50 to $18. Irish Point Sash Curtains—white and ivory—at $1.75 to $5.75, with 16 kinds at between prices. Were $2.25 to $8.50. Numerous patterns. Third floor.
